

- No more lengthy waits for your tank, only for it to arrive after a downpour
- Great for historic zones where traditional tanks are not permitted
- Can be used side-by-side or connected for greater water storage
- When empty can be folded and transported easily if you move home
- Made from durable, long-lasting fabric that is fully-welded to ensure maximum strength and durability
- Built-in inlet and outlet allowing the Bartlett Bladder Tank to be installed and connected to your existing pipe work and overflow
- 12 month warranty on workmanship

2500L model dimensions:

(Available in different sizes upon request)

Empty: Approx 1575mm wide x 4700mm long

Full: Approx 1200mm wide x 4400mm long x 600mm high

The Bartlett Bladder Tank is the ideal alternative for catchment and storage of rainwater avoiding an unsightly rigid tank taking up considerable space in your yard.

The Bartlett Bladder Tank is suitable for all of your confined spaces found around the home, office, shed, beach house or outhouse.

With fitted straps for rope attachments, the Bartlett Pillow Tank is uniquely designed for transportation of water.

- Made from 900gsm PVC the Bartlett Pillow Tank is robust and durable to fulfil many needs
- All liquids are completely enclosed limiting contamination or spillage
- The Bartlett Pillow Tank is ideal for temporary storage of liquids or to transport fluid easily and safely
- Outlets can be provided in varying options to suit most applications
- Pillow Tanks are fully repairable, with each product accompanied by a DIY repair kit
- Available in a range of sizes from 500L to 2000L